Heather's WHRO Passport Picks

Dear Friends,
Happy New Year and, as the old Irish proverb states, "Today, tomorrow and always, may happiness follow you." I am delighted to share that we have several new dramas premiering on Masterpiece this month: the much anticipated All Creatures Great & Small, Miss Scarlet and the Duke, and The Long Song. All are well written, beautifully produced and time well spent. I'll share the premiere dates in future newsletters. Until then, I hope you will enjoy the selections below.
Now on to the shows.

New & Noteworthy

UNFORGIVABLE BLACKNESS
THE RISE AND FALL OF JACK JOHNSON

Unforgivable Blackness: The Rise and Fall of Jack Johnson
Jack Johnson, the first African-American Heavyweight Champion of the World, whose dominance over his white opponents spurred furious debates and race riots in the early 20th century, enters the ring once again in this documentary, a provocative film by acclaimed filmmaker Ken Burns. The two-part film shows the gritty details of Johnson's life through archival footage, still photographs, and the commentary of today's boxing experts.
